

List of the Annual Reports since 1977

Caption: The Treaty of July 1975, completed by the general financial regulations of the Community, compels the Court of Auditors to compile an Annual Report at the end of each financial year and to ensure that this report is published in the Official Journal of the European Communities, together with replies from the institutions. The Court must submit its Annual Report to the discharge authority and to the other institutions by 30 November. The Report is an important element of the discharge procedure. Discharge is granted by the European Parliament on the recommendation of the Council.

20th	Annual Report concerning the financial year 1996, together with the institutions' replies. Report on activities concerning the general budget and the sixth and seventh European Development Funds. Statements of Assurance on activities concerning the general budget and the sixth and seventh European Development Funds.	OJ C 348, 18.11.1997 - Volume I - Volume II	This Annual Report has a different structure from those of previous years. It comprises two volumes: the first contains observations resulting from the examination of revenue and expenses; the second contains Statements of Assurance.
21st	Annual Report concerning the financial year 1997: - Report on the activities concerning the general budget, accompanied by the institutions' replies: Observations and Statement of Assurance. - Report on the activities concerning the sixth and seventh European Development Funds. Observations and Statement of Assurance.	OJ C 349, 17.11.1998	This Annual Report has a different structure and content from those of previous years: - the report concerning the European Development Funds, including the corresponding Statement of Assurance, is presented separately, after the report concerning the general budget; - following the Court's decision to publish the majority of its audit results in special reports, instead of listing the detailed results of the different inquiries, each chapter now contains general observations and a summary of the conclusions of the auditing work that have been adopted in the form of special reports since the publication of the previous Annual Report.
