Council Decision of 26 September 1980 appointing the Secretary-General of the Council of the European Communities (80/918/EEC, Euratom, ECSC)

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing a single Council and a single Commission of the European Communities, and in particular Article 5 thereof,

Having regard to the Rules of Procedure of the Council, and in particular article 17 (1) thereof,

Whereas the operation of the Council calls for :

- a higher degree of continuity in the work of the Council during successive Presidencies,
- a better coordination of the work of the Council in its various formations,
- a higher degree of coherence in the work of the subsidiary bodies of the Council,
- sustained efforts to produce more Council decisions by compromise through preparatory contacts with delegations,
- significant alleviation of the Council's work load by way of preliminary agreement being reached in Coreper on a larger number of issues ;

Whereas these improvements should be brought about through determined contributions by all Member Countries to a more efficient use of the Council's decision-making structure, a special responsibility resting with the Presidency-in-Office ;

Whereas the task of the Secretariat of the Council is to assist the Council in general and the Presidency in particular in the performance of their tasks ;

Whereas the office of Secretary-General is of great importance in bringing about the necessary improvements,

HAS DECIDED AS FOLLOWS :

Article 1

Mr Niels E. N. Ersbøll is hereby appointed Secretary-General of the Council of the European Communities for a period of five years with effect from 8 October 1980 ; the term of office may be renewed once for five years.

Article 2

This Decision shall be notified to Mr Ersbøll by the President of the Council.

It shall also be published in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

Done at Brussels, 26 September 1980.

For the Council
The President
