Draft reply to Assembly Recommendation 126 on the political future of NATO
(WPM (507) and (511))

The Council agree with the Assembly that the maintenance of peace and security in the area covered by the North Atlantic Treaty depends to a large extent on close collaboration between the allied powers in both the political and military spheres.

The problems relating to this collaboration being essentially of concern to all the member States of the Alliance, the Recommendation has been transmitted, together with a copy of the present answer, to the North Atlantic Council.
