Draft reply to Recommendation 104

The Council have noted with interest Recommendation 104 on Unity of Action (European Political Union-W.E.U.)

2. The Council share the Assembly's concern that unity of action should be the aim in the fields of foreign affairs and defence. Through their deliberations and joint activities in W.E.U., NATO and other organizations, member governments are striving progressively towards this goal. The suggested European Political Union may provide another means. Member governments have this very much in mind.
