

Amendment proposed by the British delegation to the WEU Council to Assembly Recommendation 264 on the proliferation of nuclear weapons (11 November 1975)

Caption: On 11 November 1975, the British delegation to the Council of Western European Union (WEU) proposes an alternative to the draft reply (WPM (75) 35/A) to Recommendation 264 by the WEU Assembly on the proliferation of nuclear weapons. The British want to emphasise that France is the only one of the WEU Member States not to have signed the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT).

WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION

W.E.U. RESTRICTED

11th November, 1975

Draft reply to Recommendation 264
(WPM (75) 35 and 35/A)

Alternative first paragraph of document WPM (75) 35/A proposed by the United Kingdom delegation:

1. "All members of the Council hold firmly to the principle of non-proliferation. Six members are full parties to the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty and the seventh has consistently said that it will act as if it had signed the Treaty."
